

I KNOW / Sangeeta Gupta

I know/ you are still holding my hand
I feel you in my palm pain loses its intensity
I am smiling at myself
your kindness twinkles
in your eyes
In your light
I sail through darkness
I go deep in your energy field soak myself often
I recharge
Taking baby steps each day towards my passion
towards life
I know you are Still holding my hand.
