The audience appreciated the acting of Armaan (Chirag Goyal). The acting of Sharafat Ali (Vishal Shukla) was good. Every character played its role well. Fakhru's character was full of enthusiasm but at some places his behavior towards his master seemed too loud. Many times an issue was being repeated again and again, which could lead to editing. Azad Sherawat's performance in the role of Mirza was quite strong.

According to the play, the background music was selected by the play's writer and director Ashraf Ali. The backstage partners were Shikhar Tiwari, Manik Sharma, Vinay Kumar, Rajan Kumar, Simran and Amar Shah. Noor Islam was in videography. The stage decoration and lighting concept further enhanced the scenes of the play.

It seems like the actors really brought their characters to life, and the backstage crew did an excellent job too. The director's choice of background music must have added a lot to the atmosphere of the play. And kudos to the playwright for crafting such an engaging story.
