

22nd Natsamrat Theatre Festival: A Captivating Blend of Humor, Satire, and Human Emotions

The prestigious Delhi-based theatre group Natsamrat mesmerized audiences with a diverse range of plays at the 22nd Natsamrat Theatre Festival. Held on March 15 and 16, the festival showcased four plays, each offering a unique theatrical experience. From comedy and satire to deep human emotions, the performances left a lasting impression on theatre enthusiasts.

The festival opened with “The Proposal”, a play by Anton Chekhov that brilliantly captured his signature satirical style. The story revolved around a young man proposing marriage to his neighbor’s unmarried daughter, but instead of a romantic conversation, a hilarious argument over land and a pet dog ensued. The humor was not just in the dialogues but also in the absurdity of the situation and the characters’ temperaments, keeping the audience thoroughly entertained.

Next came “Kallu Nai MBBS”, a play that delivered a blend of humor and social commentary. The story followed a drunken barber who regularly abused his wife, only to be outwitted by her cleverness. Meanwhile, two servants searching for a doctor to treat their master’s mute daughter were tricked into believing that the barber was a doctor—but only after receiving a sound beating. The fast-paced narrative, physical comedy, and sharp dialogues made this play a crowd favorite.

On March 16, “Chekhov Ka Sansar” brought two of Anton Chekhov’s most celebrated stories to life. This performance not only delivered humor but also highlighted the depth of Chekhov’s storytelling, capturing the irony and struggles of human existence. The interplay of light-hearted comedy with underlying social commentary made this an engaging production.

The final play, “Kambakht Ishq”, struck a chord with the audience by portraying the loneliness of two elderly individuals who find solace in each other’s company. The play beautifully explored the importance of companionship in old age, making it a deeply emotional experience. The actors’ nuanced performances and heartfelt dialogues ensured that the message resonated with the audience.

Directed by Shyam Kumar, all four productions were masterfully staged, bringing out the essence of each story while maintaining their distinct theatrical styles. The performances by Vishwajeet, Munmun, Shivangi, Aman Kumar, Vansh Rathore, Raman Kumar, Dhananjay, Kaushal Chauhan, Ansh and Rajan K. Bhatheja were outstanding. Stage management was efficiently handled by Sunil Rathore and Suraj Singh, with Himanshu and Nisha assisting. Payal and Raj Rani managed makeup, while Rohit Prasad, Rekha Devi, and Manu Kumar Singh worked on costumes. Vansh Rathore’s contribution to music operation, played a significant role in enhancing the theatrical experience. The Natya Utsav was held at LTG Auditorium, Mandi House, New Delhi.

Overall, the 22nd Natsamrat Theatre Festival was a resounding success, offering a delightful mix of humor, satire, and emotional depth. Each play had a unique appeal, ensuring that the audience left with unforgettable memories of this vibrant theatrical celebration.
