

When Objects Spoke, and 'Gareeb Nawaz' Raised a Question: A Moving Theatrical Evening in Katharang

On 27th April 2025, at the Sammukh Auditorium of the National School of Drama, Delhi, the theatrical evening under the “Katharang” program—organized by Mailorang (Maithili Lok Rang), Delhi—featured Sambhav’s evocative presentation “Unke Hisse Ka Prem evam Gareeb Nawaz”. The performance offered an experience that touched audiences at their very core.

The direction was helmed by senior theatre practitioner Prof. Devendra Raj Ankur, whose theatrical finesse was evident in every scene and every emotion of the presentation.

The first story viewed love from an unusual yet striking perspective—where inanimate objects, rather than humans, become witnesses. Set in an office, the hidden layers of a boss's romantic entanglements are brought to life through the voices of his desk, chair, diary, mirror, and pen. While the concept sounds extraordinary, it was executed on stage with remarkable ease and believability. These lifeless symbols transformed into living characters before the audience's eyes, each one addressing the viewers—sometimes with sarcasm, at other times with compassion. The director's choice to turn objects into "characters" was a daring experiment in theatre, and it proved to be a wholly rewarding one.

The second story depicted a contemporary conflict within society, rendered in a simple yet powerful form. The struggle between Vishwamohan—who returns from America to start a BPO—and Riyaz, who opens a modest "Gareeb Nawaz Chicken Shop" next door, is not merely a business rivalry. It becomes a clash of two worldviews. Beneath its humor and wit, the story makes a poignant commentary: in the blind race for development, how many truths are trampled, and how many "Gareeb Nawaz" figures are pushed to the margins?

On stage, Nidhi Mishra, Gauri Dewal, Rachita Verma, Amitabh Srivastava, Amit Saxena, Harikesh Maurya, Sahaj Harjai, and Prakash Jha brought their characters to life with such intensity and nuance that each scene appeared to unfold right before the audience's eyes. Their performances added soul to the characters, going beyond mere dialogues. Behind the scenes, too, a dedicated creative team worked tirelessly.

Music selection was curated by Rajesh Singh, and technical operation during the performance managed by Unish Yadav and Sahaj Harjai, whose acoustic execution ensured precise alignment of sound with the emotional tone and rhythm of each scene.

Lighting was sensitively designed by Raghav Prakash Mishra, whose balance of light and shadow added both visual clarity and thematic depth. Every aspect of stage design, management, and visual aesthetics reflected a mature professional sensibility and deep theatrical insight, elevating the performance to a level of artistic completeness.

It would not be an exaggeration to say that this presentation offered more than just two stories—it offered two distinct philosophies of life. One, where love remains forever incomplete; and the other, where in the name of “success,” human relationships and grounded realities are blurred. Prof. Devendra Raj Ankur’s endeavor reaffirmed that theatre does not end at the stage—it becomes an extension of our consciousness.

Sambhav’s performance reminded us that when acting, direction, and thought move in unison, theatre becomes more than performance—it becomes a dialogue that resonates deeply within the viewer, long after the lights have dimmed.
