

ALESSANDRO PINTO

Alessandro Pinto is an internationally published Italian poet who has been translated into English, Spanish, German, and Arabic. He has explored the human and natural sciences as well as philosophy, mathematics, and theology and also has experience in music. The scope of his poetry runs from the exploration of artistic creativity and genius all the way to nature, the cosmos, and the environment. Among many other projects he is working on a cycle of resolutely contemporary sonnets.