

Good Twice Over by Manohar Khushalani

THE PIONEER WEDNESDAY MAY 12, 1939

Good twice over

FOOTLIGHTS
Manohar Khushalani
For Gayle Re Kadlowell
and Mithalal

THE new and talented groups have emerged at the State Theatre for the past few days. The new groups are the Gayle Re Kadlowell and Mithalal. They are the first to appear on the stage since the opening of the theatre. They are the first to appear on the stage since the opening of the theatre. They are the first to appear on the stage since the opening of the theatre.

Manohar Khushalani is a brilliant writer of lyrics, who has given the theatre a new and original touch. His lyrics are not only beautiful but also very original. They are the first to appear on the stage since the opening of the theatre. They are the first to appear on the stage since the opening of the theatre.

Gayle Re Kadlowell is a brilliant actress who has given the theatre a new and original touch. She is the first to appear on the stage since the opening of the theatre. She is the first to appear on the stage since the opening of the theatre.

Mithalal is a brilliant actor who has given the theatre a new and original touch. He is the first to appear on the stage since the opening of the theatre. He is the first to appear on the stage since the opening of the theatre.