

Are You A Happy Camper? by Sharon Moist

What makes you happy? I mean really, truly happy. Have you ever given any thought to what makes you the kind of “jumping for joy, singing in the rain” happy, that leaves you grinning from ear to ear for no apparent reason?

When I was younger, it was material things: new shoes; a new purse; the latest CD by my favorite musician, a new car. You get the picture.

Now, it's the simple things in life: spending quality time with my parents'; good conversations with friends; great water pressure in the shower; playing with a puppy; nicely fragranced soap; spending the summer at my home in Montana (where I am even as you read this); grapefruit scented candles; a beautiful garden of wild flowers; new baby ducks learning to swim in the stream off my dining room patio (see the enclosed picture); a really good thunderstorm; jumping in a really big rain puddle afterwards. Those are the things that truly put a smile on my face today.

What about you? What's on your list?

In today's fast-paced world, it's so easy to get caught up in the day-to-day stress of our lives that we forget to stop and enjoy the little things that make life so wonderful.

So now, after you're done reading this article, I would challenge you sit down and make a list of those things that make you truly happy – and I'm willing to bet that they aren't material things.

Then, when life becomes a little too crazy or too stressful to handle, pick an item on your "Happy List" and take the time to enjoy it – even if it's just for a few minutes. You'll be amazed at how great you feel during the rest of the day.
