

Samik Bindu's STORY OF LORI

Director: Mayukh Dutta

Playwright: Samik Bindu

Director: Mayukh Dutta

Group: Chetla Krishti Sansad, Kolkata

Language: Bengali

Duration: 1 hr 30 mins

The Play

The play opens with two cats ushering in a retro-future backdrop. Three notorious business tycoons monopolize the 'intangible cultural heritage' through diplomatic support of the greedy state-minister, by luring the Master Chef King, an indifferent, careless food aficionado. 'Nerdy', a pseudo-human-robot designs surveillance gadgets to track hapless commoners, daring their basic rights of singing lullabies and cooking food, which have now become red-listed. Public life is jeopardized with hungry, sleepless children and a helplesking in self-proclaimed exile. Ultimately the cats come to rescue by finding a special little girl. Together, they find the king and make him cook a unique recipe with powers to instil humane sanity in 'Nerdy' by deleting his robot-mode.

Director's Note

The story is set in a fairy-tale-like background. The play symbolically depicts how crony capitalism is denying the basic rights of the people via monopolizing the natural resources of a country. The greedy corporates use state-of the-art technology to accomplish their mission. In the play three notorious businessmen monopolize two intangible cultural heritage of the people; bed-time folk-tale lullabies, ritually sung by the people for their children to make them fall asleep at night, and traditional recipes. Red-listing and commercialization of these basic rights, along with severe surveillance, results in sleepless nights, hungry, imprisoned offenders, and choked public life. Two cats find a little-girl and the king, a Master chef, to cook an ancient recipe which destroys the 'villains' strategies, finally restoring the situation to some extent.

The Group

Chetla Krishti Sansad was established in 1985 for the welfare of children, and with the dream of making a social change by giving expression to the thoughts of down-trodden children through theatre. Till date it has staged more than 40 productions and has received rave reviews. Now, the group has extended to a large family; the ones who started their journey as child artists in the group have now grown up to mature theatre workers. In addition to children's welfare, the group is now equipped with productions by adults. Although the group is run only by donation and meager financial support from the common people, without any Government or non-Government sponsorship, the determination and discipline of our theatre workers give us the hope to change the mode of life through theatre.
