The Play

This play depicts the story of the transformation of rats into humans and humans into rats. 'Garibprasad' has been given the task of killing the rats but instead of killing them he brings the two rats (Harus and Marus) to his home. The two rats befriend Garibprasad's daughter 'Laali'. Harus Marus get to know that the 'Malik' is exploiting Gareebprasad and he doesn't even have money for her daughter's engagement. Harus Marus decide to help Gareebprasad. But in the process Gareebprasad gets convicted for the crime that he didn't do.

And in all these chaos Gareebprasad realises that he is living the life of a puppet and everybody is pulling his strings as per their wishes and that it's better to be a rat than being poor.

Director's Note

Harus-Marus is an original contemporary play which unveils the parochial nature of human beings. We live in such a time where human life is of mere value. Our daily struggle for existence is even inferior than the life of rats. The widening inequality in our society forces a larger portion of population towards the silent epidemic of hunger. Their misery is not only restricted to food but they also don't have the right to live freely. Harus-Marus is a satire where the writer literally creates a mob of rats in searching for food and has two mice which speak human language. In a humorous satirical way, the play takes us into the realms of poverty where the poverty-stricken human being is compelled to choose a life of rat over human life. In juxtaposition, rats help the poor to get justice.
