

Kinu Kaharer Thetar by Manoj Mitra

The Play & Director's Note

The minister of state of Putna has abused a woman. The governor general says, 'If it is not settled by law, the throne will be seized'. The king is now in trouble... the minister of state is his best friend, so how can he submit him to 14 slams of whip? He advises the minister to find out someone who will come to the court and state that he is the one who has committed the crime, not the minister, so that the punishment will be delivered to him. Jagadamba hands her lazy husband Ghontakarna to the minister, in exchange of four bags of money. Since then, all thieves, robbers, marked criminals gather in line at Ghontakarna's yard, with bags of money; they do the evil, and punishment goes to 'punishment receiving officer' Ghontakarna. Jagadamba is happy that finally her husband has learnt to earn money...The king is happy for the throne is saved...The minister of state is happy, because there is no problem of law and order...Peace is everywhere...But, it doesn't continue as easily...The king suddenly gets accused of murdering a goat. The intelligent governor general submits him to be hanged. The king says, 'What to worry for? I have Ghontakarna. Go, Ghontakarna, stand up on the dice and get hanged.' And then...?
