

P. Melodi Dorcas's Play: Behind the Borders

Dramaturgy & Direction: Petrishia Melodi Dorcas

Group: NSD Student Diploma Production, New Delhi

Language: Non verbal

Duration: 1 hr 10 mins

The Play

Behind the Borders discusses the issue of 'rage' in an episodic manner. Throughout the play the issues of lynching, rape, land-occupation, honour killing, and writers'-murders are depicted in a visual vocabulary. This is a new medium of narration to communicate with the audience where each scene has strong images and each image is different from every other in the scene. The music instruments used in the play have a strong interpretation to every scene, depending on how the performer's body is transforming in every scene and how the bodies that deal with different characters and craft are a part of scene. There is no backstage or green room in Behind the Borders, and the idea of bringing the backstage musicians onto the stage has its own narrative in the scene.

Director's note

During the process, it was quite a task for us to bring out the visual language of the text we were dealing with. We started improvising each incident from the script. Each one of us came up with different ideas and we started exploring everything. As a collective, we explored different mediums during the process like sound, music, visual installation, durational images, digital narrations, drawings, five senses of the script etc. Behind the Borders is thus a production which is developed by each and every artist of this play collectively. We carried a responsibility of bringing out an ideal production, following the dramaturgy, but later we just went with the flow of the process.
