

Politicians Make Touchy Celebs

TELE-VIEWS

Member of Parliament

A recent belly-ache episode involving Sushmita Mukherjee had a clearly political edge for the first time since she became a Member of Parliament. The noted film starlet was accompanied by her 16-year-old son and daughter for the first time in a public setting as she accompanied her husband to a political event, which has had an obvious and well-publicized effect on her career.

She is to be seen, perhaps on TV, the "other side of the coin" shortly, because a recent report published in the Indian press has accused her of being a member of a "black" organization. The report, which is a sensationalist piece of journalism, has caused a stir in the political circles. Sushmita is widely regarded as the most beautiful woman in India.

Her recent TV appearance, including her role in a film, has been a success story. She has been a member of the Indian Parliament since 1996. She is a member of the Congress party. She is a member of the Indian Parliament since 1996. She is a member of the Congress party. She is a member of the Indian Parliament since 1996. She is a member of the Congress party.

Politicians Make Touchy Celebs

Sushmita Mukherjee has made no friends in high places with her spoofs on Indian politicians for two very controversial, if well-intended, political parodies.

The full range of her creative capacities. Her political career, however, has not been a success story. She has been a member of the Indian Parliament since 1996. She is a member of the Congress party. She is a member of the Indian Parliament since 1996. She is a member of the Congress party.

She is a member of the Indian Parliament since 1996. She is a member of the Congress party. She is a member of the Indian Parliament since 1996. She is a member of the Congress party. She is a member of the Indian Parliament since 1996. She is a member of the Congress party.

She is a member of the Indian Parliament since 1996. She is a member of the Congress party. She is a member of the Indian Parliament since 1996. She is a member of the Congress party. She is a member of the Indian Parliament since 1996. She is a member of the Congress party.