

BCCI in the hunt for Team India Cricket Coach

The most successful coaching stint was from Gary Kirsten
By Sunil Sarpal

Coaching Team India is an onerous task for BCCI. The tenure of Rahul Dravid, Team India Coach, is coming to an end. BCCI is looking for his replacement. In the past, some notable contributions as Team India Coach have come from Gary Kirsten, John Wright, and Ravi Shastri. The most successful coaching stint was from Gary Kirsten. But for his family commitments, he left Team India even though both BCCI and Indian side did not want to part company. John Wright was also a success story so was Ravi Shastri. The credentials of a coach should have man-management skills and recognizing zinks in players and finding solutions to it.

At the moment, India has in its ranks the world class Rohit Sharma and Virat Kohli. Both of them are at the twilight of their illustrious careers. Coaching such stalwarts is a difficult task for a coach.

When Anil Kumble was entrusted with the task of coaching Team India, he had differences with Virat Kohli. This resulted in Kumble's withdrawal from the coaching job. There came a phase in India Cricket when Greg Chappel was appointed as India Coach. During his tenure, Team India's performance nose-dived because he had differences with the then India Captain Saurav Ganguly. BCCI had to remove Greg Chappel to save the team from the ignominy of dismissal performance.

BCCI therefore has to keep all pros and cons in mind for this appointment.

The names that are making round for this job are Tom Moody and VVS Laxman. Tom Moody carries advantage over Laxman because of his previous coaching stint.

First and foremost, BCCI has to ensure that Team India's harmony and unity is not affected with the arrival of a new incumbent for this job. Will the new incumbent prove to be a worthy successor of Rahul Dravid? Because Team India is blended with both youth and experienced players. Indian Team is rich with both pace and spin. India has the batters who can shine in any situation and condition.

BCCI has to ensure that the coach will take the team forward and not indulge in any ego-related problem. The coach should be competent enough to understand the requirements of both experienced pro and new and budding cricketers.

Legendary Australian fast-bowler Brett Lee makes a prediction about an Indian player

by Sunil Sarpal

Brett Lee: Yep! He's the one, SKY!

Legendary Australia fast-bowler Brett Lee believes an Indian in-form batsman will someday be a major factor in winning a World Cup for the Indian team. 2022 has been a year in which, through his 360-degree play and astonishing shots, became the toast of T20I cricket.

He is currently the highest run-getter in T20Is this year with 1,164 runs in 31 matches, averaging 46.56 and at a strike-rate of 187.43. He also lit up the Men's T20 World Cup in Australia, the first time he's played competitive cricket in the country. Surya Kumar Yadav amassed 239 runs in six innings at a strike rate of 189.68, often changing the tempo of the innings for India.

Surya Kumar Yadav: Where SKY is the limit

“SKY was one of the highlights for me at the T20 World Cup. He continues to bat with the same attitude. Not only will he score big runs but he will also someday win a World Cup for Team India. I love watching him play. My advice to SKY would be no advice. Keep doing what you are doing, don't change, don't complicate things, back yourself,” said Lee on his YouTube channel.

Just after T20 World Cup, Suryakumar enthralled cricket fans yet again when he smashed 111 not out off 51 balls against New Zealand at Bay Oval in Mount Maunganui. In that match, the rest of the visitors' batters made 69 runs off as many balls and Suryakumar's knock was called by Virat Kohli on Twitter as a “video game innings.”

“India did not win the T20 World Cup but the SKY rose. Of course, I am talking about Surya Kumar Yadav. He is the new global T20 superstar. What a sensational 12-15 months he has had on the big stage.”

“He has shown here on Australian grassy wickets where the ball skids through. His fearlessness and his shot selection are like that of a chess grandmaster. His execution is awe-inspiring and the smile on his face when he played it, is priceless," added an impressed Lee.

On Yadav's technique of playing shots which has made him stand out from other players, Lee stated that his basics of the game are sorted and wants Rahul Dravid and Rohit Sharma to let him shine in the coming years for India.

"I like the way he executes the impossible shots because his basics are in place. He doesn't go out there and just tries to hit the ball that isn't there to hit. He has a wonderful technique and he is definitely a player for the future."

"You can trust Rahul Dravid and Rohit Sharma to just let him be the person he needs to be. SKY would rise and this could lead to many more peaks for India in years to come."
