Natsamrat Delivers a Riot of Laughter at LTG Auditorium

Natsamrat transformed the LTG Auditorium, Mandi House, New Delhi, into a vibrant space of laughter and theatrical joy with four engaging performances of two popular comedy plays on 26 January 2026. Directed with confidence and flair by Shyam Kumar, the evening stood out as a celebration of popular theatre, combining sharp humour, energetic performances, and relatable social themes that resonated strongly with the audience.

The programme opened with Anton Chekhov's iconic one-act comedy The Proposal. What begins as a simple marriage proposal soon descends into a series of hilariously exaggerated arguments over land, pride, and even a pet dog. The production sparkled with impeccable comic timing, crisp dialogue delivery, and high-voltage performances. The actors handled Chekhov's fast-paced exchanges with remarkable ease, ensuring sustained laughter and spontaneous applause throughout the performance.

The second presentation, Kallu Nai MBBS, brought a refreshing shift in tone with its rooted, desi humour and sharp rural satire. The play revolves around a drunken and oppressive barber whose wife decides to teach him a lesson in his own language. The narrative takes a comic turn when two servants searching for a doctor to cure their master's mute daughter forcibly turn the barber into a 'doctor'. Packed with situational comedy, witty dialogues, and colourful characters, the play not only entertained in abundance but also subtly commented on social hypocrisies, superstition, and domestic violence, making the humour both engaging and meaningful.

Performers Munmun, Rajan K. Batheja, Shivangi, Raman Kumar, Aman Kumar, Vansh Rathore, Shammi, and Ansh Rathore brought infectious energy to the stage, keeping the audience thoroughly engaged from beginning to end. Their spirited performances, supported by disciplined direction, ensured that every comic moment landed effectively.

The success of both productions was equally strengthened by the dedicated efforts of the backstage artists and technical team. Behind the scenes, Sunil Rathore, Suraj Singh, Pawan, Nisha, Poonam, Rani, Rohit Prasad, Rohit Prasad, and Poonam contributed significantly through efficient costume management, enhancing the visual authenticity of the performances. The musical atmosphere created by Vansh Rathore added rhythm and emotional texture to the scenes, further amplifying the overall stage impact.

With these back-to-back comic successes, Natsamrat once again reaffirmed its command over popular theatre. The productions proved that when lively performances, thoughtful direction, and strong backstage support come together, comedy theatre becomes not just entertainment, but a powerful and memorable theatrical experience.

Natsamrat Theatre Festival: A Celebration of Dramatic Excellence

Play Scene

Delhi’s renowned theatre group “Natsamrat” once again mesmerized audiences with the 22nd Natsamrat Theatre Festival. This grand theatrical event brought together a collection of eight remarkable plays, each offering a unique blend of humor, drama, and thought-provoking narratives. With powerful performances and engaging storytelling, the festival successfully captured the essence of theatre, leaving a lasting impression on spectators.

The festival commenced on March 15 at 6:15 PM with Anton Chekhov’s “The Proposal.” This classic farce, filled with witty dialogue and situational humor, kept the audience engaged. The actors skillfully portrayed the irony of a marriage proposal turning into a heated argument over land and a pet dog. Their impeccable timing and expressive performances made the play a delightful experience. Following this, at 7:30 PM, the satirical play “Kallu Nai MBBS” took the stage. This play blended comedy with social critique, addressing themes of domestic violence and gender dynamics. The protagonist, a drunken barber, finds himself in a bizarre situation where he must endure beatings to prove his worth as a doctor. The fast-paced narrative and lively performances ensured continuous laughter while subtly conveying a deeper message.

On March 16, the audience witnessed “Chekhov Ka Sansar,” a dramatization of two of Chekhov’s iconic stories. The play beautifully combined humor and profound emotions, bringing out the essence of human relationships and social contradictions. The nuanced portrayal of characters and their inner conflicts made it an enriching theatrical experience. Later that evening, at 7:30 PM, “Kambakht Ishq” explored the theme of companionship in old age. The story of two elderly individuals navigating loneliness and seeking emotional support struck a chord with the audience. The actors delivered heartfelt performances, making the play both touching and thought-provoking.

The festival continued on March 22 with “Kuch Tum Kaho Kuch Hum Kahein” by Ashish Kotwal. The narrative revolved around an elderly doctor and a lively woman, Mansi, whose contrasting worlds collide unexpectedly. The interplay of their personalities created a compelling and engaging storyline. At 4:15 PM the same day, “Meri Biwi Ki Shaadi” by Ranbir Singh entertained audiences with its hilarious premise. The protagonist, a hypochondriac, believes he is nearing death and becomes obsessed with planning his wife’s future after his demise. His anxious attempts to arrange her remarriage lead to an unexpected twist, making the play both humorous and insightful.

On March 29 at 3:00 PM, the thought-provoking drama “Aadhi Raat Ke Baad” by Dr. Shankar Shesh was staged. The story followed a thief who, instead of stealing, breaks into a judge’s house to confess a crime he witnessed—a powerful businessman’s involvement in a journalist’s murder. Afraid for his life, he seeks imprisonment as his only refuge. The intense dialogues between the thief and the judge exposed the flaws in the judicial system, leaving a lasting impact on the audience. The festival concluded with “Kaisa Hai Yeh Paisa” by Shyam Kumar at 4:15 PM. This emotional drama explored the complexities of family relationships and material greed. A devoted father, who spent his life caring for his children, is neglected in his old age. However, when the children discover he is about to receive a large fortune, their attitude takes a drastic turn. The play’s gripping narrative and emotional depth made it a memorable finale to the festival.

The festival’s success was driven by the stellar performances of actors Vishwajeet, Munmun, Shivangi, Aman Kumar, Raman Kumar, Dhananjay, Ansh Rathore, and Rajan K. Bhatheja. Their dynamic portrayals brought depth and realism to each character, making every play a remarkable experience. Behind the scenes, Sunil Rathore and Suraj Singh managed stage operations efficiently, assisted by Himanshu and Nisha. Raj Rani’s makeup artistry enhanced the visual appeal of the characters, while Rohit Prasad and Rekha Devi contributed to costume design. Vansh Rathore handled the musical arrangements, enriching the dramatic atmosphere. Under the expert direction of Shyam Kumar, each play maintained a unique artistic essence. Hosted at LTG Auditorium, Mandi House, the festival witnessed enthusiastic participation, with audiences applauding every performance. The overwhelming response reaffirmed the timeless charm of theatre and the vital role of groups like Natsamrat in preserving and promoting this rich cultural tradition.

16th Natsamrat Natya Utsav opens in the Capital 6th March ’19

groups. Since its inception in 1998, Natsamrat has presented 1265 shows of 35 renowned plays. Ably led by Actor, Director and Visionary Shyam Kumar, whose philosophy has really been not only to evolve his own group but also to create space for all other theatre groups which are battling heavy odds to survive in theatre. Thus 16 years ago, when Natsamrat was barely four years old, he started the Natsamrat Natya Utsav so that other theatre groups also get a platform to perform. Three years ago, again Natsamrat widened its landscape by starting a Natsamrat Mahavidyalaya Natya Utsav, a student theatre festival, providing a parallel platform for the upcoming theatre generation to evolve and grow. Thus despite limited resources such a grand festival has evolved and grown. Natsamrat theatre festival thus begins with a bang on 6th March 2019 at 6.30 pm with the first performance of Waiting for Godot. The schedule is given above and the synopsis of the plays are given below.

On 9th March, at the same venue, Natsamrat will award the Thespians who have been supporting Theatre as Practitioners, on Stage, off stage and as promoters and critics. Read more about elsewhere

1. WAITING FOR GODOT

Translation by Krishna Baldev, Witten by Samuel Beckett and Directed by Mohit Tripathi

On 6th March, 2019 at 6:30 p.m.

The plot of Samuel Beckett's Waiting for Godot is simple to relate. Two men, Vladimir and Estragon, meet near a tree. They converse on various topics and reveal that they are waiting there for a man named Godot. While they wait, two other men enter. Pozzo is on his way to the market to sell his slave, Lucky. He pauses for a while to converse with Vladimir and Estragon. Lucky entertains them by dancing and thinking, and Pozzo and Lucky leave. After Pozzo and Lucky leave, a boy enters and tells Vladimir that he is a messenger from Godot. He tells Vladimir that Godot will not be coming tonight, but that he will surely come tomorrow. Vladimir asks him some questions about Godot and the boy departs. After his departure, Vladimir and Estragon decide to leave, but they do not move as the curtain falls. The next night, Vladimir and Estragon again meet near the tree to wait for Godot. Lucky and Pozzo enter again, but this time Pozzo is blind and Lucky is dumb. Pozzo does not remember meeting the two men the night before. They leave and Vladimir and Estragon continue to wait. Shortly after, the boy enters and once again tells Vladimir that Godot will not be coming. He insists that he did not speak to Vladimir yesterday. After he leaves, Estragon and Vladimir decide to leave, but again they do not move as the curtain falls, ending the play.

On 8th March, 2019 at 6:30 p.m.

Saiyan Bhaye Kotwal is a translation of famous Marathi folk play Vichha Majhi Puri Kara, which was written by Vasant Sabnis. The story of the play is focused on the king and his scheming prime minister. As per the hierarchy, the present Havaldar have to be promoted to that post. However, the wronged Havaldar and hi girl Mainavati, a dancer, plans to frame the new Kotwal. The play is based on traditional tamasha and is a slapstick comedy which brings out the political undercurrents of nepotism.

4. GORAKHDHANDHA

Wriiten by Jayvardhan and Directed by J.P.Singh
On 9th March, 2019 at 6:30 p.m.

When money becomes the be all and end all of one’s existence, when money becomes one's religion then all relations, all ethics and morals are rendered meaningless. When one's sole aim is to accumulate wealth then the person's conniving mind keeps on scheming towards that end. There are some people who are adept at extracting something out of nothing. The protagonist of this play is such a character who will resort to any means to hoodwink people out of their money. While seemingly he is being helpful and charitable towards others, however, all he is doing is helping himself in the guise of helping others. He believes that there is a certain honesty to his dishonesty. In his games of deceit, he is forced to tell lies after lies till in the end he is so caught up in his web of untruths that he is neither able to give up nor get out. Gorakhdhandha is a fictional play based on true stories. Its dialogues and anecdotes don't just tickle our funny bone but rather force us to break out into bouts of laughter.

5. SANDHYA CHHAYA

Wriiten by Jaywant Dalvi and Directed by Sudesh Sharma
On 10th March, 2019 at 6:30 p.m.

Sandhya Chhaya is a story about an old couple, an aged couple who spent their lives in the upbringing of their children and they are the ones who live alone and long for the love, affection and togetherness of their children. It is a story about a man and woman fondly called Nana, Nani respectively and it deals with the emotional turmoil the parents have to go through. In spite of having being deprived of love from their children, they still have the courage to fight the melancholy and pathos of their lives. They support and love each other and as the play unfolds, the audience also falls in love with them. Older people who are not so useful in today's materialistic age bear the brunt of the changing values. They get lonelier and lonelier. This play is entertaining and simultaneously it tells us about old age and Loneliness. It is a great play, which can be very easily called a classic of Modern times. They have two sons, Deenu (the elder one) and Nandu (the younger one). Deenu is settled in USA and Nandi is in the Air Force. Deenu very rarely comes to meet his parents. He just sends money at regular intervals, meanwhile as the play progresses, they get to know that Nandu has been killed in the war. The whole play revolves on the nuclear families' concept where in the parents are left alone and their children are settled somewhere else. The whole play is poignant collective mixture of emotions portrayed by an old couple, be it happiness, loneliness, love for kids, their childhood etc. On the whole, the play stresses on the fact and asks the society a very straightforward question that parents who have been there for us the whole life, do they deserve such a lonely old age? Do they really?
