Water on Water

water paints waves of water on water loops of light spread over the gently rolling surface trembling air
stirs gentle motions threads of luminous brilliance collect in rainbow colors from a distant sun to weave a lucid web over the blue

bounty and beauty

water ever alive there and always there at the edges of the seen

Bodies

the wisdom to forestall the shattering of bones shadows on an X-ray

the naked body lying on a vacant shore lying on inland soils tenderly overgrown with apples and grass

the flight of nightbirds of seabirds soaring over the waters

The Dimension of Desire

To hold you tight
finally to hold you

with half closed eyes scrutinizing the future searching for hope always searching

Internet and Handy
as Dimensions of hope

To observe always more keenly disappear farther and farther away till I reach the land following you the land of desire always following you

Pray to some wise god whoever s/he may be hidden from us and equal for all

and to the angel who appears out of focus on all the picture who mocks me hanging from the cornice above which there are only stares of cold stars

but where are you?

Forgetting

How easy it is to forget you your hands your lips on my body

to get lost in the daily chaos that separates us and each from himself

stuck
in a grey world submerged in ugliness

A world that knows not the trembling
of glowing bodies

A world
without an instrument to measure the vibration of a kiss on my breast that burns on me today with your absence

I want a Date

I want a date with your mind want to sing on the roving sands where thoughts run rampant with desire in a high tide of fun spun surf spraying threads of sun

to laugh at the day's dismays indulge in 'come what mays' and chant to the sinking sun the cradle songs of yesterday

I want a date with our bodies till sleep will separate all but our thirsty revolving skins embracing love-crazy planets in dreams uniting us again and again

Red Carpet – A Haiku Cycle

The dreams you told me
I embroider in secret
I stitch them in sleep

in the middle of a room dreams hard to come by

since I live you by dreaming I crave every word

and every secret nuance a verse from the heart

now a calm reassurance
the world has vanished

I, the magic carpet and

The Hourglass Moment

This is the moment to turn the hourglass around time had run through it had almost run its course now we've found each other round the bend lies the new life made from of the same trickling grains of sand that viewed from upside down seem more magnificent

As from a kaleidoscope shaken again and again emerges beauty and order unforeseen just like you and yet seen as the light in your eyes

I will only smile and abide by this light between us that shines at a might of hunger and love

This is moment time has been found a time that was run through this is our moment to turn the hourglass around

Afternoon

The sun puts the clouds on the table between the glasses and the crackers a piece of luminous sky between floating smiles bits of today's heaven come down to us as a light right here looking into each other's eyes

Fingering

What I had under my fingers Third down over the thumb Though it didn't at first make sense Is still under my fingers Decades later as I listen to Glenn Gould playing Bach's Italian Concerto

My fingers remember
The lonely contemplative Voice of the second movement Ranging in small second steps And big sixth or seventh jumps With my fingers not jumbled But behaving sagaciously As though the music
Had been written for them

And it was

How Animals Move

Placid or doomed nervously pacing the fence line swishing their tails the chewers the sighers the scratchers those who bicker and fuss and those who just stare those who roll in the grass those who cry out curdling the air who seem to lug their bodies home to nowhere all the way home

And some who in their strange tongue call out to me

Going South

Do I know the way home when the way home for me is to go far out into the world of summers and springs holding onto a suitcase

I carry all that's mine with me says the philosopher and it means carry very little, only for the humblest needs of body and mind

Mining the world
with mine eyes and ears and other given senses

Mining friends' eyes and brows the knowledge of their town their laughs and meeting their friends

maybe with a sixth sense and maybe even going south

Haiku

the morning rising on the edges of the seen asks us for the dream

I write always write I'm writing to remember writing to forget

if it flies, let it sing in rain and shine, let it fly out of your hands you see some red leaves and you think of fall before summer ever came small world an absurd cage of words, my rattling bones haunted by desire

we are like mayflies like insects caught in amber happy one moment

your shadow when you arise dances on my walls:
the house is happy

we can't see the moon it has not reached us yet and would be useless
